

Whitney Lair Serves as Congressional Intern with Moran

CHANUTE - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Whitney Lair is serving as a congressional intern in his Washington, D.C., office. Lair is a 2004 graduate of Chanute High School.

"I place a high priority on giving Kansas students the opportunity to work in our nation's capital and learn about the workings of our federal government," said Moran. "Whitney has been working hard on issues important to our state."

This fall, Lair will begin her senior year at College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass., where she studies English. In addition to her studies, Lair volunteers at the University of Massachusetts Memorial Hospital and a shelter for young homeless mothers. She also participates in College Republicans, Students for Life and campus ministry. After completing her undergraduate education, Lair plans to attend graduate school to pursue a career as a nurse practitioner.

"While my internship is giving me the chance to learn firsthand how the legislative process works, I most enjoy assisting Congressman Moran respond to the needs of Kansans," said Lair.

In the office, Lair assists Congressman Moran with legislative and administrative duties on behalf of the people of Kansas.

Whitney is the daughter of Mark and Karen Lair of Chanute.

###